

WILLIAMS SELYEM

2010 Sonoma County Pinot Noir

WINEMAKER COMMENTS

The fresh bouquet of Rainier cherries, toasted vanilla beans, wild berry fruits with smoky bacon, herbs and rose petal open up immediately in your glass. This medium-bodied wine shows true pinot flavors of cherries, raspberry, root beer, rose petal and toasted vanilla beans. A blend of vineyards primarily from the Russian River Valley, the wine finishes clean and long with a sweet note of cherry at the end. This is one to consume while patiently waiting for the vineyard designates to mature.

THE VINEYARDS

The pinot noir for this blend was sourced from the Bucher Vineyard, our Drake Estate Vineyard, the Foss Vineyard, the Lone Oak Vineyard, and from our Williams Selyem Estate Vineyard.

HARVEST 2010

The 2010 vintage produced wines reflective of each individual vineyard site and appellation with concentrated aromas, rich fruit flavors, nicely balanced acidity and supple tannin structure. The hallmark of the 2010 vintage is one of extremes; between cool, early season temperatures and extreme late season heat, wines of tremendous character were made through careful attention to detail.
